

Guides and Resources in 3D Printing

survey published 03 Dec 2025

About this survey

This survey is being done to get a greater understanding of what type of supporting content students want to see in the 3D workshop – both online and in print. These questions are not to assess your understanding of 3d printing as a concept, and the answers will be totally anonymous – so you can be as honest as you like about what you think of our content!

If you received an email link to this survey you should have also received an attached copy of a new 3D printing poster - which some of these questions are about. You can answer this survey wether or not you have 3D printed with us before, or seen our existing resources on Moodle.

This research is being conducted as part of my (Jules Stuart) PG Cert research into using illustrated glossaries as a teaching tool. The results from the survey may be displayed in a powerpoint presentation (in the form of pie charts) to a group of up to 10 other UAL staff members, but will be kept totally anonymous.

If you wish to get in touch to ask questions about the poster, the survey or the project please message j.s.stuart@lcc.arts.ac.uk.
